3. FEE DISCOUNTS

- 3.1. A 20% discount on the membership fee, but not the craft or trailer fee, is available to those who reach state retirement age by 1st January of the year membership applies. For a Single Adult Member that one member must reach state retirement age. For a Family Membership both adult members must reach state retirement age. Members are required to apply for this discount and confirm they are entitled.
- 3.2. Exceptionally, discounts of up to a maximum of 20% on the membership fee, but not the craft or trailer fee, may be available to those who experience personal or financial hardship. Members are required to apply for approval of this discount to the Membership Committee.
- 3.3. Honorary members are relieved from paying membership fees of any category they choose and are not obliged to do duties; they do pay craft and trailer fees when applicable. Honorary membership is awarded by the General Committee to members who have made an outstanding contribution. Nominated members may be departing or no longer in active membership.
- 3.4. An early bird discount on the total membership and craft/trailer fee may be available to those whose payment or direct debit instruction is received by mid-night of the date of the AGM. Details of this discount are determined each year and are available to new members and existing members.
- 3.5. New members joining on the Open Day and paying within 7 days are entitled to a discount of £20 on any category of membership. Pro-rata discounts are available to new members on a monthly sliding scale from 1 April.

4. PAYMENT TERMS

- 4.1. The preferred method of membership application or renewal is through WebCollect.

MEMBERSHIP POLICIES

- 4.2. Members who require support in order to access WebCollect may contact the Membership Secretary or attend membership renewal sessions early in the year.
- 4.3. Payment is accepted via bank transfer and cheque.
- 4.4. Payment in cash is accepted at no additional charge by contacting the Membership Secretary.
- 4.5. Payment by PayPal may be accepted subject to availability and an additional charge will apply.

  - a. Craft being raced in an Open Meeting at the Club.
  - b. Craft signed in in the visitor's book.
  - c. Craft being brought in for organized training.

8. STORAGE

- 8.1. Hollowell Sailing Club does not permit non-members or social members to park or in any other way store possessions being craft, trailers or any other forms of equipment on site.
- 8.2. Any person wishing to keep such items on site is required to pay a sailing membership fee in addition to the relevant equipment fee.

9. STICKERS

- 9.1. Once a craft and trailer has been registered and paid for, the owner will receive a non-transferrable sticker, which should be attached so that it is easily visible for inspection when parked.

10. TRAILERS

MEMBERSHIP POLICIES

10.1. Only those trailers which are intended for the transport of sailing dinghies, sailboards and rowing craft are permitted on the register and if separately stored a fee is due. Trailers, which are kept underneath such craft are not required to pay a separate fee.

11. SOCIAL MEMBERSHIP

11.1. Social membership entitles members to access Hollowell Sailing Club at any time, attend any of the social functions or just drop in for a drink and a bite to eat and take in the stunning views from the clubhouse. Social members may sign in sailing and non-sailing guests and make purchases from the licensed bar, book the clubhouse for personal use, and use free Wi-Fi in the clubhouse. Social members may hire craft for sailing guests.

12. RESIGNATION

12.1. After resignation a member will remove all their possessions from the premises.

12.2. Where no formal resignation is received this will be understood to be the 31 December of the last year in which their membership fees were paid.

12.3. If a past member's possessions are still on the property within three months of their resignation these will be considered to be abandoned and contact will be made according to the Club Rules unless otherwise agreed.

12.4. If a past members possessions remain on the property during a period exceeding 3 months of a calendar year during which no membership or craft/trailer fees are paid, and that member wishes to rejoin, then all full fees will be due for that past calendar year and the member forfeits entitlement to all discounts.
